

Pestilence, Subordinate To The Domination

"Branded, for making the wrong choices in life"

Open the book of life

To die a second death

Burn in the lake of fire

Next to the false prophet

Face the thrones of judgement

Decide who lives who dies

Glorify the priests of unholiness

Bring forth your lies

Die in your sin, weakling

End in sight by His might

No power over the sacred ones

Kings of a thousand years

Heavenly fires waste those

Who failed to see or hear

The words as old as time

Written and foretold

Marked will be their bodies

Their souls they have sold

There's no mercy, save me

From this purgatory

Stigmatized

Stigmatized
