

Pet Shop Boys, I Get Along

Feeling like I'm stuck in a hole body and soul
while you're out of control Now I know why you had to go well I think we both know why it had to be so I've been trying not to cry
when I'm in the public eye Stuck here with the shame
and taking
my share of the blame
while making
sudden plans that don't include you

I get along, get along without you very well
I get along very well

Now I know you'd much rather be with rock royalty instead of someone like me
The big boys are back and we need them, you said Think it was something you'd read and it stuck in your head Even though I don't suppose that's as far as it goes You've got quite an appetite for being wronged and in the right Well from now on it won't affect me

I get along, get along
without you very well
I get along very well

The morning after the night before I'd been alerted to your lies
I phoned you up Your calls were all diverted Took a long time to track you down even then you were defiant It's not what you think it is, you said and proceeded to deny it

So I lost my patience at last and it happened so fast you belong in the past
I've been trying not to cry
when I'm in the public eye
Stuck here with the shame
and taking
my share of the blame
while making
sudden plans that don't include you

I get along, get along
without you very well
I get along very well