Pet Shop Boys, Invisible

After being for so many years
The life and soul of the party
It's weird
I'm invisible
Whatever I have said and done
Doesn't matter in this chatter and hum
I'm invisible

I'm here but you can't see me I'm invisible It's queer how gradually I've become Invisible

Look at me the absentee disappearing finally Goodbye Is it magic or the truth? Strange psychology? Or justified

Can you hear me? Can you see me? Am I really even here?

It's too late to find an excuse The party's over and I'm not much use tonight Am I tragic or a joke wrapped in my invisibility cloak? Well, quite

I'm here but you can't see me I'm invisible It's queer how gradually I've become Invisible

It's a journey so they say But in this desert I was only a hazy, lazy mirage anyway
