

Pet Shop Boys, Love Life

You live a life alone
And so do I
Don't you ever get lonely?
Do you wonder why?
May I propose a new solution
A revolution
You and me

Can I be the one
To share your love life?
Can I be the one
To share your love life?
Can I be the one
To share your love life?
Can I be the one
To share your love life?

Why don't we share a place
The two of us
Just a quiet life
Without much fuss
With a love we've made
From most of it
You must admit
You agree

Can I be the one
To share your love life?
Can I be the one
To share your love life?
Can I be the one
To share your love life?
Can I be the one
To share your love life?

I don't present above
Well dressed and clean
With a good sense of humour
Non-smoking, non-scene

[spoken]
I like walks in the country
Going to a film or a play
Romantic dinners
With a couple of glasses of Chardonnay

Can I be the one
To share your love life?
Can I be the one
To share your love life?
Can I be the one
To share your love life?
Can I be the one
To share your love life?
