

Pet Shop Boys, Loves Comes Quickly

(Love pains)

(Love pains)

Midnight

I watch you as you are sleeping

You don't know I'm leaving

My bags are packed to go

Oh, no, no, no

It hurts me

Hurts me so to leave you

Leave you for some one who

I hardly even know

But time has come to say goodbye

To spread my wings and fly

To feed the need I feel inside

But I keep feeling these love pains

Hurting me through and through

Caught between a love or two

Oh, will I ever be free from these love pains?

(Love pains)

(Love pains)

Can't help

Can't help but remember

The love we had, so tender

A world so safe and sound

Oh, no, no, no,

His kiss, temptation so inviting

A feeling so exciting

Has turned me upside down

And though, I know I could be wrong

This feeling's much too strong

I've got to be where I belong

But I keep feeling these love pains

Hurting me through and through

Caught between a love or two

Oh, will I ever be free from these love pains?

Tearing me more apart

'Cause I don't wanna break your heart

Oh, will I ever be free from these love pains?

(Love pains)

(Love pains)

Love pains

Hurting me through and through

Caught between a love or two

Oh, will I ever be free from these love pains?

Tearing me more apart

'Cause I don't wanna break your heart

Oh, will I ever be free from these love pains?

Hurting me through and through

Caught between a love or two

Oh, will I ever be free of these love pains?

Tearing me more apart

'Cause I don't wanna break your heart
