

Pete Doherty, A Little Death Around The Eyes

A little death around the eyes
Your boyfriend's name was Dave
I was bold and brave
And now you're mine
You cook and clean and sew
When I tell you to, when I ask you to,
If I ask you to,
But I don't want you to..
You don't need tellin' twice with me,
You don't need tellin' twice
??
To break free,
Ya well, you'll never have break free from me
Your boyfriend's name was Dave
I was bold and brave
And now you're mine
You cook and clean and sew
When I tell you to
Dance and screw when I want you to
In a hotel room you take your medicine
On all fours, that's your medicine
Feeling better now?
Feeling any better now?
A little death around the eyes...
