

Pete Townshend, Meher

Meher, Meher

You can turn the darkest night into the brightest day;
you make all the difference in the world.

Oh, Meher, Meher

You can thaw the coldest part;
you can melt the hardest heart;
you bring a spring to this wintery world.

Oh, Meher, Meher

Time and again, nothing changes.

God remains the same.

Time and again, throughout the ages,

you remained the same. Love along.

Baba's sun, shine on, shine on;

Baba's sun, shine on me.

Baba's sun, shine on, shine on;

Baba's sun, shine on me.

You are our love; you are our light;
you are the bread and the wine, and we are all hungry in this famine world for you.

Meher, Meher
