

Pete Townshend, She's A Sensation

She overwhelms as she approach's
Make your lungs hold breathe inside
Lovers break caresses for her
Love enhanced when she's gone by

You'll feel her coming
A new vibration
From afar you'll see her
She's a sensation
She's a sensation

They worship her and all she touches
Hazy-eyed they catch her glance
Pleasant shudders shake their senses
Her warm momentum throws their stance

You'll feel her coming
A new vibration

From afar you'll see her
She's a sensation
She's a sensation

Soon you'll see her, can't you feel her, She's coming
Send your troubles dancing
She knows the answer she's coming
She's coming
She's a sensation

She leaves a trail of rooted people
Mesmerized by just the sight
The few she touched now are disciples
Love as One, she is the light
She is the light...
