

Peter And The Test Tube Babies, Put Your Hand

Put your hand on your heart and tell me it's all over
Put your hand on your heart, put your hand on your heart.

Well it's one thing to fall in love, but another to make it last.
I thought that we were just beginning, but now you say we're in the past.
Look me in the eye and tell me we are really through.
It's one thing to tell me you love me, but another thing to hear it from the heart.
And if you don't intend to see it through, why did it ever start ?
I want to hear you tell me that you don't want my love.

Put your hand on your heart and tell me, I won't believe 'till.
Put your hand on your heart and tell me that you're through
Put your hand on your heart and tell me.

They like to talk about forever, but most people never get the chance.
Do you want to lose our love together, to find a new romance ?

I want to hear you tell me that you don't want my love.
