Peter Andre, I Need You

yeh what can i say? My heart needs you, My body needs you, I need you

I see you dancing there, should i approach? You seem to be sending out signals double time! Maybe i will dance your way, but most likely i won't!

My heart needs you, My body needs you, I need you

I finally supress the butterflies! i do what know other does, i walk over casually and you seem to walk further away!

My heart needs you, My body needs you, I still need you!
