

Peter Baumann, Ground Zero

I asked myself what the chances could be
That I would live to age seventy-three
We're livin' in Ground Zero
Talk to the TV and the TV talks back
It says, "Buddy better face the fact
You're living in Ground Zero"

Chorus:

Livin' in Ground Zero
The future has begun
Livin' in Ground Zero
The future has begun
Ground Zero
Ground Zero

Go to the doctor feeling paranoid
He says, "Buddy better face it boy
You're livin' in Ground Zero"
I want to live to be a family man
I want to live without fear

Chorus

I asked myself what the chances could be
That I would live to age seventy-three
We're livin' in Ground Zero
Chorus
