

Peter Cincotti, Miss Brown

Who do you think is coming to town?
You'll never guess who
The lovable, huggable, Emily Brown
She's Miss Brown to you
What if the rain comes pattering down?
My heaven is blue
Tennessee's sending me Emily Brown
She's Miss Brown to you
I know, I know her eyes will thrill ya
But go slow, don't you all get too familiar
Why do you think she's coming to town?
You just wait and you see
The lovable, huggable, little Miss Brown
She is baby to me
I know, I know her eyes will thrill ya
But go slow, just take it slow
Don't you all get too familiar
Why do you think she's coming to town?
You just wait and you see
The lovable, huggable, little Miss Brown
She is baby to me
She is baby to me
Yeah she's baby to me
