

Peter Criss, Rock Me, Baby

Baby, who you been lovin' since your man's gone
Baby, who you been seein' since your man's gone
Tellin' all those cheap, cheap lies, you
Hopin' that his eyes won't see through you, yeah
Well baby, I can play it, there's something I just got to do
I got to slumpin' and you know that it's true
You got the sure shockin', hit rockin', movements
You're gonna blow my blues away

Come on and rock me till I'm ready to rock (rock me, baby)
Rock me till I'm ready to drop

Baby, who you been lovin' since your man's gone (man's gone)
Baby, who you been seein' since your man's gone (man's gone)
Tellin' everybody that you just don't
Really need love from anyone

Baby, who you been lovin' since your man's gone (man's gone)
Baby, who you been seein' since your man's gone (man's gone)

Rock me till I'm ready to rock (rock me, baby)
Rock me till I'm ready to drop

Baby, who you been lovin' since your man's gone (man's gone)
Hey baby, who you been seein' since your man's gone (man's gone)
I'm sayin' baby, who you been lovin' since your man's gone
(Baby, who you been lovin')
Ooh honey, who you been seein' since your man's gone
(Baby, who you been lovin')
I'm sayin' baby, who you been lovin' since your man's gone
(Baby, who you been lovin')
Honey who you been sleepin' with, your man's gone
(Baby, who you been lovin')
Baby, who you been walkin' with, your man's gone
(Baby, who you been lovin')
Honey, who you been lovin'
