

Peter Evrard, Loserman

Take a look at me now
What a fool I have been
To give you my soul for granted

Take a look at me now
You must have thought I was God or something
By now the eagle has landed

Timebells are ringing
Get lost while I'm singing
Louder, louder and more clear
I'll keep on singing until you disappear

Don't wanna be a loserman
Don't wanna be a superman
No more, no more
Don't wanna be a loserman
Don't wanna be a superman
No more, no more

I couldn't refuse you
I didn't find the right words to
I faced, got tricked by, colorful windows

Timebells are ringing
Get lost while I'm singing
Louder, louder and more clear
I'll keep on singing until you disappear

Don't wanna be a loserman
Don't wanna be a superman
No more, no more
Don't wanna be a loserman
Don't wanna be a superman
No more, no more

I know you ain't sorry
But that's not my worry
Meet the invisible rules for a little respect

Don't wanna be a loserman
Don't wanna be a superman
No more, no more
Don't wanna be a loserman
Don't wanna be a superman
No more, no more

Don't wanna be a loserman
Don't wanna be a superman
No more, no more
Don't wanna be a loserman
Don't wanna be a superman
No more, no more
