Peter Gabriel, Father, Son

Remember the breakwaters down by the waves I first found my courage, knowing daddy could save I could hold back the tide With my dad by my side Dog plows and bows We move through each pose Struggling in our separate ways Mantras and hymns Unfolding limbs Looking for release through the pain And the yogis eyes are open Looking up above He too is dreaming of his daddys love With his dad by his side Got his dad by his side Can you recall How you took me to school We couldnt talk much at all Its been so many years Guess Im still your child Out on the moors We take a pause See how far weve come Youre moving quite slow How far we can go Father and son With his dad by his side With his dad by his side Got his dad by his side With me
