

Peter Gabriel, Mercy Street

for anne sexton

looking down on empty streets, all she can see are the dreams all made solid are the dreams all made real all of the buildings, all of those cars were once just a dream in somebody's head

she pictures the broken glass, she pictures the steam she pictures a soul with no leak at the seam

lets take the boat out wait until darkness
wait until darkness comes nowhere in the corridors of pale green and grey nowhere in the suburbs in the cold light of day there in the midst of it so alive and alone words support like bone dreaming of mercy st.

wear your inside out
dreaming of mercy
in your daddy's arms again
dreaming of mercy st.
'swear they moved that sign
in your daddy's arms

pulling out the papers from the drawers that slide smooth tugging at the darkness, word upon word confessing all the secret things in the warm velvet box to the priest-he's the doctor he can handle the shocks dreaming of the tenderness-the tremble in the hips of kissing Mary's lips

dreaming of mercy st.
wear your insides out
dreaming of mercy st.
looking for mercy

mercy, mercy, looking for mercy

Anne, with her father is out in the boat riding the water riding the waves on the sea
