

Peter Gabriel, Whole thing

Whole thing will still go on without you
Something will still be there to move me
Coz my own thing is always to inspire you
One that I love I dream beside
One that I love I dream beside
One that I love is close as I can get
The one that I love I dream beside
One that I love I dream beside
Sometimes I can't remember
Sometimes I can't forget
Thole thing will still come down without you
It's nothing to do with all of you
But my own thing is only to protect you
One that I love I dream beside
One that I love I dream beside
One that I love is close as I can get
One that I love I dream beside
One that I love I dream beside
Sometimes I can't remember
Sometimes I can't forget
Each night in bed my dreams take me over
Whole world still goes round without you (over and over)
