

Peter Koppes, Our Love

Graceful mysterious that you are
Guided by good sense and a star
Knowing and following sheer beauty
That's your charm and

Our love is the power
To treasure and to shower
Overall

Faithful to virtue and your worth
Loving of fellow ones on this earth
I for one would be at loss
If not for your birth

Millions upon millions
Live from day to day
Seeking precious moments
Forever they'll stay
Memories upon memories
Bound by our belief
Nothing comes between us
Not even a master thief
