

Peter Koppes, Thankyou

Thankyou

I nearly missed so thankyou

You should be kissed, yeah thankyou

It was you who made my wish come true

My every word you seem to hear

Peaceful mooring at your pier

Holding under southern skies

Caring more than for a slice

Thankyou

I have to run but thankyou

For all you've done, yeah thankyou

You really came through

Who, if not me has to say to you

"There's a knowing in your eyes

A place for you in paradise"
