

Peter Luts, Everyday

In my soul, in my zone
I can't hear a sound
You're wonderful, wonderful
Treasure that I found
I don't ever wanna lose this feeling
Like the high your force is taking over me
Music is the God that I believe in
Let it feel my heart, and set my body free!

Every day of my life,
I'm walking in the sun
And every day of my life
That seems yet to come.
Everyday of my life
I'm walking in the sun
And every day of my life
Feels like it just begun

In my eyes, in my eyes
You can't see a light
It's burning right, burning right
In the darkest night
I don't ever wanna lose this feeling
Like a higher force is taking over me
Music is the God that I believe in
Let it free my heart and set my body free!
Oh, yeah!

Every day of my life,
I'm walking in the sun
And every day of my life
That seems yet to come.
Everyday of my life
I'm walking in the sun
And every day of my life
Feels like it just begun.
Every, every day, every day!
Oh, everyday!
