Peter Murphy, Let Me Love You

Love me now Until the end of time See me over your heart In the night Never let me go until you see All the scenery and faking Fall away from me

Oh let me love you in the morning light Oh let me give you cover until it's alright Oh let me feel you come into my arms

The saints have come over They stayed all night long Save your heart till the end of time... they say.. ...Come over now, approach from every side Give your heart till the end of time

Oh let me love you in the morning light Oh let see you over until it's alright Oh I fall so blue, coming to your arms Oh let me see you over, until it's all...
