

Peter Murphy, Mercy Rain

Mercy Rain

Would you walk with me tonight
Could you run where the lovers run
Would you stay with me tonight
Will you forgive me if I rush
When I tell you I am yours
As we run where the lovers run
Run with the sound
I won't let you down
Would you swim from the rivers edge
Could you jump where the lovers jump
Would you stay with me tonight
Let's be the runners in the mercy rain
Be my bridge when I fear to cross
As we run where the lovers run
Run with the sound
I won't let you down
Swim, swim
