

Petra, Till Everything I Do

by Bob Hartman
Based on Col. 3:17

I could never hide away in a place that You won't see Caught between the way I am and the way I want to be
You can take away the mask that hides the man inside
You illuminate the ways of darkness I denied

And even though You see
You keep on lifting me

(Chorus)
Till everything I do I do for You
Through every test of faith You take me through Till every path I take is straight and true
Till everything I do I do for You

One by one You chip away at the edges of my heart
Till You see the hardness and the willfulness depart

You let me see my pride
Then pull me to Your side

(Chorus)

Though I grow closer to the image You intend for me
I won't be all I'm meant to be Till face to face I see

(Chorus)
