

Petula Clark, Winchester Cathedral

Winchester Cathedral, you're bringing me down
You stood and you watched as my baby left town
You could have done something but you just didn't try
You didn't do nothing, you let him walk by Now, everyone knows just how much I needed that boy
He wouldn't have gone far away if only you started ringing your bell
Yeah Winchester Cathedral, you are bringing me down
You stood and you watched as my baby left town, everyone knows just how much I needed that boy
He wouldn't have gone so far away if only you started ringing your bell
Yes Winchester Cathedral, you're bringing me down
You stood and you watched as my baby left town
