

PFR, Great Lengths

here i am once again
pleading
to the sky
kneeling to the sands shedding my regrets
knowing You'll forget everything

Chorus
why didn't i go to such great lengths to try to please You
instead i tried to please myself in the end when your heart is broken i see the folly of trying to please myself

i have not yet arrived seeing anything
quiet my desires till they die until they die or align with Your will

Chorus 2x
