

Phantom/Ghost, Born With A Nervous Breakdown

this old road leads to the palace of wisdom I still miss them their names are legion on my way come in and stay all through the night and hold me tight

please do not leave me anymore it's such a bore and believe me

you never know when it's enough until you know when it's more than enough born with a nervous breakdown
