

Phantom/Ghost, Nothing Is Written

nothing is written in the stars
nothing is written in the palm of my hand

once you're bitten by the snake that suddenly occurred the trick, William Potter is not minding that it hurts nothing is written in this world the thing is we tumble and we twirl

nothing is written in your eyes that haunt me like a ghost nor it's written in your smile you accidentally overdosed it's not disrespectful it's my manner

once I'm here I'm gone we can't all be lion tamers but it can be fun

the thing is we tumble and we twirl

I am an ordinary person with an ordinary life
