

Phantom Planet, Down In A Second

Can I find a place of solace to unscale?
Should I take a social climb? Should I fail?
Have we gathered here to buzz or just to roach?
Have I bought another problem to approach?

If you want to leave me
If you want to just throw me away
I'll be down in a second
I'll be down in a second

How come now it seems that you no longer care?
How can I live a life that seems no longer fair?
Have we noticed yet that this is not a game?
Have I bought a fast way to a claim to fame?

If you want to leave me
If you want to just throw me away
I'll be down in a second
I'll be down in a second

If you want to leave me
If you want to just throw me away
I'll be down in a second
I'll be down in a second

If you want to leave me
If you want to just throw me away
I'll be down in a second
I'll be down in a second
