

Phantom Planet, Powered By Scotch

Drink
Until you forget
Taste the fate of the rest
Won't you have one more glass?

Drink
Until you forget
Taste the fate of the rest
Won't you have one more glass?

Powered by scotch
Alone on a yacht
While the kids run amuck in the house
A bourbon and coke on a table of oak
As the boys lie awake in their beds

Drink
Until you forget
Taste the fate of the rest
Won't you have one more glass?

Drink
Until you forget
Taste the fate of the rest
Won't you have one more glass?

Remember what was
Sit back and enjoy
The buzz as your cells melt away

Turn up the TV
Take a load off your feet
As that same old great feeling kicks in (same old feeling kicks in)

Drink
Until you forget
Taste the fate of the rest
Won't you have one more glass?

Drink
Until you forget
Taste the fate of the rest
Won't you have one more glass? Yeah

Drink
Until you forget
Taste the fate of the rest
Won't you have one more glass?
So drink
