Phantom Planet, Rest Easy

It's all clear,
No need for you to fear,
Nothing's under the bed tonight
It's alright
No need for you to fright,
Nothing's after you tonight

[chorus:]
If I pretend that I'm asleep
Will that prevent from making me their next meal,

It's alright
No need for you to fright,
You've only lost your sense of sight
Rest your head
And dream yourself to bed,
Or else I wont sleep well tonight

[chorus]

If I hold out to the light of day
Will they disintegrate away, far away
