

Phantom Planet, So I Fell Again

I can't say if this feeling coming over me is real,
But I know it's something you can't steal,
So I'll buy another problem to approach,
Sell a virgin lie that can't be touched.

[Chorus:]

So I fall again,
so I fall again,
So I break through this rotten piece of wood,
again

I can't say if this here f*cking subject should be dropped,
But I know it's something you can't stop,
So I'll buy another pick up line & sigh,
And pretend that everything is all right

[Chorus]
