

Phantom Planet, Waiting Around

Girl, you know it's wrong
That you lead me on
You know one day
I won't be here anymore
Oh yeah

And it hurts like hell
But I wish you well
Cause that dude that you're with
Is gonna put you down, put you down

And I'll be waiting around
Waiting around for you
I'll be waiting around
Waiting around for you

You don't call me back
But you never have
When it built up, cried enough to drive me mad
Oh yeah

But I understand
You found a brand new band
And I hope someday somebody breaks your heart in two
Your heart in two

And I'll be waiting around
Waiting around for you
I'll be waiting around
Waiting around for you
Oh yeah

I'll be waiting around
Waiting around for you

Oh yeah

Going to break your heart in two
Your heart in two

And I'll be waiting around
Waiting around for you

Yeah, I'll be waiting around
Waiting around for you

Yeah, I'll be waiting around
Waiting around for you

Yeah, I'll be waiting around
Waiting around for you

Yeah, oh, I'll be waiting around
Waiting around for you
