

Pharoahe Monch, The Light

Uh-huh, alright, alright, alright, okay, uh-huh, a-yeah

[Pharoahe Monch]

It was like the earth twisted around her
She shifted the ground I was like, "Ohhhhh.. SHIT!"
She's off the hook, I would dress her decently but look her body is immaculate I'm attackin it from all positions of thinkin inside my mind-ah
Hopefully it won't be too inappropriate if I walk over there and say,
"Excuse me, can I have your number please?
I'll get on my knees if I have to"
She'll laugh through, the whole episode
Just then I knew I had her locked (down)
No cock-blocking please this one's mine (uh) Dimepiece and shit son, shorty was fine
Every line of mine was like a rhyme I wouldn't lie I swear
Sparklin the whole time as I whispered in her ear

[Chorus: x2]

And I know you will see the light
Baby, once you understand, what you mean, to me, darling..

[Pharoahe Monch]

"Now some say I'm a LITTLE bit a thug slash b-boy gentleman but, let me introduce myself also begin, so that you can further understand what I say"
I took this last swallow of the Gran Moulet and slid her to the dancefloor, now she like "WOW!
Oh, damn, money got style"
Funny how things change when you got a liquor in ya you're quicker with the tongue, givin me rhythm now huh Block the music and the people out to admire the love
The nerve of us, impervious to the entire club
And like marijuana shotguns let's blow this joint It's pointless to say here, so let me annoint

[Chorus]

[Pharoahe Monch]

.. we kissin and we wrestlin - sexual confessions
I never lack to pack prophylact', I learned my lesson
First impression, to be discrete, use discretion
Back of the cab undressin - uh-huh
I'm here witchu, sorta like a bond spiritual
All night, all I could do, is stare at you Cracked the window and the Alize on the Palisades Right before she told me her name was Valerie
Her crib was just a mile away, nothin to my salary
She could serve me pain all night and I could tolerate I'm her horizon right, but in the night though Night glow type shit (and I know you can see the light)

[Chorus]

..and I know you can see the light baby, once you, understand what what you mean to me girl what you do no doubt check it out now
Now I know you can see the light
Baby, once you..
