

Phatfish, Here I Stand

Here I stand, covered by grace
Under the blood that was shed for me
Here I kneel, before the King upon His throne
Here I bow, to worship the Lord
Enjoying his favour on my life today
Knowing that we'll never be apart

I'm a child of God created for my Makers' pleasure
Chosen to enjoy Him forever
Granted dignity by what He says about me
Made in His image, precious in the eyes of my father
Purchased by the death of my Saviour
I have been given life to the full

Here I stand, covered by grace
Under the blood that was shed for me
Here I kneel, before the King upon His throne
Here I bow, to worship the Lord
Enjoying his favour on my life today
Knowing that we'll never be apart

In this precious place
I'm basking in the warmth of the sunshine
The whole experienced and the presence
Brings such joy to me and such liberty
Oh I'm standing firm
Holding fast to all you have spoken
Now promises none will be broken
I lift my faith in Jesus Christ

And all will believe all the lives that I heal
And no self-esteem whispers into my ear
That I'm worthless and poor, I'm lost and alone
At moments like that I must look to the throne

Here I stand, covered by grace
Under the blood that was shed for me
Here I kneel, before the King upon His throne
Here I bow, to worship the Lord
Enjoying his favour on my life today
Knowing that we'll never be apart
