

Phatfish, I'll Wait For You

You went away
Yesterday
With something to prove
Set you're path
Sailed away
Far away
And there you entertained danger
Suffered at the hand of a stranger
And now you can't see a way home
This is not what I designed for you

But I'll wait for you
Yes I'll wait for you

Now looking back
All the times
You would talk to me
And I look
Out for you
Every day
But you are too ashamed
To lift your head up
Look me in the eyes and
Tell me that you still want me
I will love you whatever you have done

I've got a ring my daddy gave me
I'll put it on you finger
And a coat to keep you warm
I've got a pair of comfy shoes
You can put them on your feet
And I'll prepare for us a feast