

Phathom, Flow

These questions are unanswered and were all denied These end of days they bring to light the way we should have lived our lives Embrace it on my own and make it my own heir Take this chance feel its rise feel its fall
Close your eyes
and let it flow These times they are changing for what are all we looking for look to the sky
Is anybody out there
hello can you hear me
your breaking up
dont leave me here again
Let it flow!
