

Phil Carmen, Reason Return

father time he turned around and shook his head once more reflectin' on the past an' all that's bin' I've seen it all he pondered and some era's come to mind
leavin' it all behind

reason return...
reason return...
reason return...
reason return...

if 84 was premature
the vision wasn't wrong
should freedom fade, there's nowhere left to run
Damos, Wells an' revelation gonna have
their time
leavin' it all behind

reason return...
reason return...
reason return...
reason return...

reason return...
reason return...
reason return...
reason return...
