

Phil Collins, Can't Find My Way

'...To try to do the right thing...always the right thing.'

I've been doing some thinking, here on my own it's been on my mind this debt I owe to you I have to repay in kind

But I can't find my way

Tired and weary, I follow the path that leads to your door but it occurred to me, all that I have is already yours

But I can't find my way

Oh, just to sit a while Oh, just to sit and watch you smile

But I can't find my way

Keep the faith you say to keep the faith I pray be strong you say just follow the light

Wheels keep turning but the closer I get the farther I seem peace will only come finding the peace within
