

Phil Joel, Tonight (Not Fading Away)

Tonight, talking to You
I thought to myself
About all those conversations
Tonight, somebody new
Is gonna take control
And that somebody is You

I was only thinking of You
The Jesus I never knew
Thinking of You
And now You finally broke through
Tonight

Tonight, it's not just emotion
Coming over me
I hear You calling
"Hey come follow Me,
And stop messing around
It's time to lay it all down

Out in the fields there's a cold wind blowing
But here in your heart
You must surrender!"

Tonight
You are more than a mystery
No more fading away for me
No more fading away
I'm not fading away
Stop fading away
Stop fading away
I'm not fading away
We're not fading away
