

Phil Keaggy, Another Try

How have You been? Lovely to see You,
My how the years slipped by.
Won't You come in, Feel free to be You,
Give me another try.

Because I'm empty, I'm lonely,
I need You only to fill my need inside.
I give You the keys, so do as You please,
Please give me another try.

I can recall the place where I left You,
You gave me no reply.
Your eyes said it all, but I'd become deaf to
Your tears as I waved goodbye.

But now I'm empty, I'm lonely,
I need You only to fill my need inside.
I give You the keys, so do as You please,
Please give me another try.

I've changed my heart now,
I'm willing to go Your way.
And I couldn't part now,
With You for a single day.
For I have missed You, and when I missed You,
I really missed You so.
If You will have me, I'll be Your's gladly,
But don't ever let me go.

I've been waiting for so long to get right with You.
