

Phil Vassar, Let Me Love You Tonight

I know we're broken
I can feel the pain
A million words unspoken
But your eyes say everything
You say, "It's over."
You want to be my friend
If I could reach inside your heart
I'd make you mine again
It doesn't really matter who's wrong or right
Baby, just pretend until the morning light
Let me love you tonight
One more time
And you can leave tomorrow
But let me love you tonight
You said, "It was easy."
To be you with me
It's gonna hurt believe me
But I'm gonna set you free
Just for a moment
Let's put away the blame
Close your eyes and remember
When I was your everything
I know tonight it surely gonna end
So hold me in your arms and make love to me 'til then
Let me love you tonight
One more time
And you can leave tomorrow
But let me love you tonight
Give me a break for old times sake
And maybe, baby, you might wanna stay
Let me love you tonight
One more time
And you can leave tomorrow
But let me love you tonight
Let me love you tonight
