

Philiae, Reminder

REMINDER

Hey you/ today we die
And the world around turns black
Hey you / today you cry
About yesterdays; they never come back
Hey you / behind the lie
Do you remember what Waters said?

Hey hey you
Don't give in / without a fight
Hey hey you
Don't give in / don't let them bury the light

Hey you / out their in the cold
The wind of evolution is blowing so hard
I already know too much about myself
I already know too much about it all

Hey hey you
Don't give in / without a fight
Hey hey you
Don't give in / don't let them bury the light

devided we stand together we fall
