

Phixx, Love Revolution

It's a love revolution

I thought I knew, what love was about
Was lost in a maze couldn't find my way out
Then with one touch you set me free
You open my mind, my spirit, my body

It's a sanctuary, it's the sweetest tunnel of light (light, light)
It's like fire burnin through my veins and I feel so alive

(Chorus)

Oh ohh, come and join a revolution
Now we've finally got somethin to believe in
We'll take you to a new sensation
It's a love revolution, it's a love revolution,
Love's revolution, it's a love revolution

You bring me around, making a change
Cause you take me to a new destination
Release me from an ordinary world
Cause you are the one that's making me turn

It's a sanctuary, it's the sweetest tunnel of light (light, light)
It's like fire burnin through my veins and i feel so alive

(Chorus)

Oh ohh, come and join a revolution
Now we've finally got somethin to believe in
We'll take you to a new sensation
It's a love revolution, it's a love revolution,
Love's revolution, it's a love revolution

Heads up....oh ohh, oh ohh, oh ohh ohh

It's a sanctuary, it's the sweetest tunnel of light (light, light)
It's like fire burnin through my veins and i feel so alive

Oh ohh, come and join a revolution
Now we've finally got somethin to believe in
We'll take you to a new sensation

Oh ohh, come and join a revolution
Now we've finally got somethin to believe in
We'll take you to a new sensation

It's a love revolution, it's a love revolution
Love's revolution, it's a love revolution

Love's revolution...
