

Phosphorescent, Lost Name

if i lost my name
i would not feel bad
'cause i lost my name
and i don't feel bad

and setting them on the flames we could flame all night and took my heart
and you broke it right.

for your bare hips i would trade all the air i breathe
all the words i've used and i don't believe

if we came back down
i think you'd be the same
'cause i came back down and you're just not the same

and i do not feel bad
