

Phranc, I'm Not Romantic

I don't feel romantic about you
I never think about you or the things that you do
I don't stop to wonder why you don't call
No I don't feel romantic about you at all

And even if I did
I wouldn't let you know
'Cause god knows what you'd do
If I let it show

No I don't feel romantic about you
I never think about you or the things that you do
I don't stop to wonder why you don't call
No I don't feel romantic about you at all

Did I blow it?
I think I blew it
Oh. Why did I call?
I've taken all your pictures down off my wall

I don't feel romantic about you
I never think about you or the things that you do
I don't stop to wonder why you don't call
No I don't feel romantic about you at all
No not at all
I'm not romantic at all
No not at all
I'm not romantic at all
