

Phyllis Hyman, Hurry Up This Way Again

(scatting)

Oh how it hurts
Loving someone who loves someone else
So many nights
I spend here all alone by myself
Whenever you're with her
Whose loving me
Nobody

Hurry up this way again
I love you
Hurry up this way again

I never know when I'm going to see you again
Can't make no plans
I just see you whenever I can
What happens in between
I set and dream about you

Hurry up this way again
Don't you know I love you
Hurry up this way again
I love you (don't you know I love you, hey, hey)

So many nights I spend here, I spend it all alone
But I love you
I love you, ooh,
Hurry up this way again
Oh I need you (I need you)

ad-lib and fade
