Pico Vs. Island Trees, In The Sky

Can you see me
Walking along the shores of my
Insecurity?
It never seemed to take you by surprise.
And that's alright with me.
If that'll work for you.
That's alright with me.
If you're all I stand to lose.

So you found your place in the sky
Hard to see through clouded eyes.
But it's alright to cry.
We all get so selfish.
I'm waiting for you to come back
And tell me the reason why
You had to throw it all away.
We all get so selfish.

And I can't wait for you to say
You'll still love me anyway.
And I can't put you down no more.
Never thought I did before.

But I'm not leaving you now.
I'm not letting you down.
Float above me somehow.
I'm not leaving.

I see you try to slip away.
As the blistering sun begins to fade.
But every night ends another day.
As the stars show up to light your way.
But where you goin so late at night?
You gonna run for miles, you gonna be alright.
Always been one to start a fight.
So sit back, shut up, hold on tight..

Cos' I can't wait for you to say.
Never mattered anyway,
And won't watch another day.
While you throw you're life away.

But I'm not leaving you now.
I'm not letting you down.
Float above me somehow.
Float above me, you're my cloud.

And I can hear you crying
In the corner of my mind.
And I will rescue you somehow
If I could only find
The single place where you were crying
Weren't you crying out to me?
And I will rescue you somehow.
From the bottom of the sea of your tears.

I can't wait for you to say.
You never loved me anyway.
And I can't hold you down no more.
Just tell me what are you running for.

When I'm not leaving you now.
I'm not letting you down.
Float above me you're my cloud.

Float above me somehow.
You're not leaving me now.
After I stuck around.
Float above me somehow.
I'm not leaving.
