

Picture House, Slide

(Maitland)

I was thinking of you yesterday
And I swear you were almost here
You were only around for a second say
But it seemed like years
And we called and we cursed like a thousand birds
And it took me by surprise
To be left in the search for this rainfall of words
To bring Lazarus to life

You were talking to me yesterday
From the sound of a distant place
Though I seem to be there in some way
There was no one behind the face
Then a part of me found
As I was feeling around
As you do when you're struck blind
Now I'm finally free
I just never believed
It was emptiness I'd find

CHORUS

It's why I've let it slide
A part of me that lived for you just died
It's why I've let it slide
You and me we're both on the same ride
Just on different sides

I was thinking it through
Thinking of you
I'm finally free
I just never believed
