

Picture House, Sunburst

(browne/maitland/glenister)

There's a sunburst whenever you're near me
There's a sunburst trying to break through
And I wait hopefully near you
Hoping you are trying to get nearer
To the sunburst, the one that I'm feeling
Such a sunburst, trying to break through
And I wait hopefully near you
Hoping you're maybe feeling it too

What a day
What a day
What a day she gives me
All I need
And she's taking me over
Breaking me open

Like a sunburst rising and waking
In her room she's leading me through
But I'll wait hopelessly dreaming
But knowing that dreaming is true

What a day
What a day
What a day she gives me
All I need
And she's taking me over
Breaking me open

Like a sunburst whenever you're near me
There's a sunburst trying to break through
And I wait hopefully near you
Hoping you're maybe feeling it too
