

Piebald, David Lee Rock

well he came to kick ass and to take names
got sick of takin' names well ya been around for years been around the block you would think as theives well we can't believe that you replaced him with gary sheerom before than it was sammy and the hit pound cake not much better in our books

i don't think i can ever leave home again

david lee roth a hero to all especially high school boys he was good with the girls good, with the girls what more do ya need?

no you can't light a fire so you can't put it out where's your self respect?
then allen hasn't been the same since diamond dave, since diamond dave!

::BRIDGE::

yeah we're running a little bit hot tonight i can barely see the road from the heat coming up i reach down between my legs ease the set up

well, i don't think i can ever leave home again (harmony)
i don't think i can ever leave home again (guitar octaves)
